Don Kelley Cited by SC
As Outstanding Freshman

Cited among outstanding freshmen at the University of Southern California as students began their summer vacations recently was Don Kelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Kelley of 4815 Beach Ave.

Don Kelley, who graduated from Torrance High School, was listed by the SC yearbook "El Rodeo" as one of the "Fresh Personalities" of the year. He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon, the Classic Language Club, Fresh track team, and the Trojan Squires, campus honorary service club.

While at Torrance High he was president of each of his school classes, and president of the student body, a Tartar Knight captain, and a representative to the California Boys State. He was also active in dramatic and athletic affairs, and in numerous other campus activities.
